

ANNUAL SEMINAR PROGRAM EHESP-FIOCRUZ
INTERDISCIPLINARY CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HEALTH
March 11th, 2025

Amphi Gro Harlem Brundtland (Condorcet, 1 Bd Saint-Jean Baptiste de la Salle)

MORNING SESSIONS

(climate change and environmental health from the Brazilian and French lens)

- 9:00 – Introduction in French: Eduardo Alves Melo; Vice-director at ENSP/FIOCRUZ
- 9:15 - The context of climate change in Brazil and its impact on public health:
Christovam de Castro Barcellos Neto, researcher at ICICT/ENSP/FIOCRUZ
(French session)
- 9:45 - Discussant: Damien Arvor, Head of research at INSERM/LETG Rennes 2
- 10:00 - Climate Emergency and Public Health Emergencies - Challenges for current and future crises: Carlos Machado Freitas, researcher at ENSP/FIOCRUZ
- 10:30 - Discussant: Paquito Bernard, researcher at Inserm and IRSET
- 10:45 - Pesticides and Public Health in the Brazilian context : Ana Cristina Simões Rosa, researcher at ENSP/FIOCRUZ
- 11:15 - Discussant: Cécile Chevrier, Head of research at Inserm and IRSET
- 11:30 - Synthesis: Vincent Dubreuil, Professor at Rennes 2 University and President of Brittany High Council for climate
- 12:00 - Presentation of the afternoon's program: Guillaume Chevance, researcher at EHESP and CISM director

LUNCH 12:00 – 14:00

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

(focus on relevant funding opportunities to support collaborative French<>Brazilian research projects)

14:00 - Béatrice Duthey, Science and Technology Attaché, Consulate General of France in Rio de Janeiro (30 + 15 min discussion)

14:45 - Laura Kliemann; International Relations Officer, Inserm (30 + 15 min discussion)

15:30 - Networking sessions